From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

Happy Mothers' Day! May God bless all the holy women in our lives: our mothers, grandmothers, god-mothers, aunts, sisters, and friends. You all continue to remind us of the great and caring God who watches over us and loves us all to life. May God, our Holy Mother, watch over each of us today and every day of our lives.

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But," the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human good, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now." What sort of eternity are we fostering?

Recently someone asked me if we could start a "Men's Group" in the parish. Of course, I said: "YES!!". So, if you or one you know might be interested in starting such a group please call me in the office. The group would be an informal Study-Service group with open and fluid membership. Thank you for considering this opportunity for fellowship and spiritual enrichment. If someone would like to offer a similar "Women's Group", or groups of this sort for our Spanish speakers, we'd be open to that too!

Be sure to avail yourself to the wonderful music of our St. Dominic choirs next Saturday evening here in the Church. This concert, part of the 120th Anniversary year, promises to be a wonderful reflection over the theme of Creation as we celebrate the founding year of our parish. There will be a free-will offering for the needs of our music ministry here at St. Dominic. All are welcome!

Preparing for the Summer months, please don't forget your parish family with your regular weekly offering. Our bills still need to be paid even when we choose to not be present for the weekend services. And, as we travel, let us remember to pray for the safety and needs of one another.

Again, may God bless our Mothers and all the Holy Women in our lives!

Spring time blessing to all!
With Pastoral Affection,
Fr. Clint, O.P.

Queridos amigos,

Feliz Día de las Madres ! Que Dios bendiga a todas las santas mujeres en nuestras vidas: nuestras madres, abuelas, madrinas, tías, hermanas y amigos. Todos ustedes siguen recordándonos de los grandes y el cuidado de Dios que vela por nosotros y nos ama a todos a la vida. Que Dios, la Santa Madre, cuida de cada uno de nosotros hoy y todos los días de nuestras vidas.

La lectura de hoy del Apocalipsis ofrece una visión de la Ciudad de Dios, la nueva Jerusalén. "Pero", pastoral de los obispos sobre la administración nos recuerda, "así es la vida por venir" es una continuación de la vida presente a través del bien humano, los dignos objetivos humanos, que la gente fomenta ahora. "¿Qué clase de la eternidad estamos fomentando ?

Recientemente alguien me preguntó si podríamos empezar un "Grupo de los hombres" en la parroquia. Por supuesto, le dije: "Sí!". Por lo tanto, si usted o alguien que usted conoce puede estar interesado en comenzar un grupo, por favor llame a mí en la oficina. El grupo sería un grupo informal de estudios-service abierto y fluido con la adhesión. Gracias por considerar esta oportunidad para la comunión y el enriquecimiento espiritual. Si alguien desea ofrecer una similar "Mujer" del grupo, o grupos de este tipo para nuestros hablantes de español, estaríamos abiertos a eso también!

Asegúrese de acogerse a ti mismo a la maravillosa música de nuestros coros de San Domingo próximo sábado por la noche aquí en la Iglesia. Este concierto, que forma parte de la campaña 120 ° Aniversario, que promete ser una reflexión maravillosa sobre el tema de la Creación en que celebramos el año de la fundación de nuestra parroquia. Habrá un libre albedrío que ofrece para las necesidades de nuestro ministerio de música aquí en Santo Domingo. Todos son bienvenidos!

Preparación para los meses de verano, por favor no se olvide de su familia parroquial con su ofrenda semanal regular. Nuestros proyectos de ley aún deben ser pagados aun cuando optamos por no estar presentes para que los servicios de fin de semana. Y, a medida que viajamos, vamos a recordar a orar por la seguridad y las necesidades de otros.

Una vez más, que Dios bendiga a nuestras madres y todas las Santas Mujeres en nuestras vidas!

Primavera momento bendición a todos!
Con Afecto Pastoral,
P. Clint, O.P.

From the Liturgy & Music Desk:
(If you have questions contact Gerard)
Del Ministerio de la Liturgia y de la Música:

Today we celebrate the Sixth Sunday of Easter in our 120th year as a parish.

This week in John's Gospel we hear Jesus' promise that we will not be left alone, for the Advocate, the Holy Spirit will be sent in his name.

In two weeks we celebrate the coming of the Spirit at Pentecost. Next week we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. This celebration use to be celebrated on the Thursday before the seventh Sunday of Easter. However, in this diocese and in most across the United States it has been moved to the Seventh Sunday of Easter. It is sometimes a challenge for all, through all the changes and accusations in the church, to keep the Easter Alleluia alive in your heart and in your voice. Keep singing!

Please mark your calendars: Have you made your plans to attend the concert on May 15th at 7 pm? I hope to see you all there. As part of our 120th year, the Music Ministers of St. Dominic have been asked to put on a concert. This fundraising concert. The theme of the concert is "The glory of God's creation." Come and take a musical journey through the liturgical year and sing some of your favorite songs from Advent, Christmas, Lent & Easter. Come and sing to Mary the Mother of God as we celebrate her month of May with a May Crowning. Please consider bringing your mother or grandmother to the concert. Please stay for ice cream and sweets after the concert.

Hoy celebramos el Sexto Domingo de Pascua en nuestro año 120o como parroquia.

Esta semana en el Evangelio de Juan que escuchamos la promesa de Jesús que no vamos a dejar solo, porque el Consolador, el Espíritu Santo será enviado en su nombre.

En dos semanas se celebra la venida del Espíritu en Pentecostés. La próxima semana se celebra la Ascensión del Señor. Este uso celebración que se celebrará el jueves ante el séptimo domingo de Pascua. Sin embargo, la mayoría en esta diócesis y en todo Estados Unidos se ha desplazado al Séptimo Domingo de Pascua. A veces es un reto para todos, por todos los cambios y las acusaciones en la iglesia, para mantener la Pascua Aleluya vivo en tu corazón y en tu voz. Mantenga cantando!

Marque su calendario: ¿Ha hecho sus planes para asistir al concierto el 15 de mayo a las 7 pm? Espero verlos a todos allí. Como parte de nuestro año 120o, los Ministros de Música de Santo Domingo se ha pedido a un concierto. Este concierto de recaudación de fondos. El tema del concierto es "La gloria de la creación de Dios." Venga y tome un viaje musical a través del año litúrgico y cantar algunas de sus canciones favoritas de Adviento, Navidad, Cuaresma y Semana Santa. Ven a cantar a María la Madre de Dios al celebrar su mes de mayo con una coronación de mayo. Por favor considere traer a tu madre o abuela al concierto. Por favor, quédate para helados y dulces después del concierto.

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal

Proceeds to the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal fund many corporal and spiritual works of mercy which ease the hardships of those among us. As followers of Christ, we are called to imitate Him who came not to be served, but to serve. Appeal donations will lighten the burdens of many. Please be most generous.

Colecta Annual del Arzobispo

Lo recaudado en la Colecta Annual del Arzobispo financia muchas obras de misericordia que alivian dificultades físicas y espirituales de aquellos que viven entre nosotros. Como seguidores de Cristo, estamos llamados a imitar a Aquel que no vino a ser servido, sino a servir. Sus donaciones aliviarán la carga de muchos. Por favor sea generoso.

Happy Mother's Day! Whether you are a mother by birth or adoption, a godmother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, an aunt, or a daughter or son this is a day to celebrate the life giving stewardship of motherhood., This demand to share your life with another human being is stewardship at its most basic definition. There is so much as mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, and aunts that we can teach the next generation about sharing what we have been given.

My mother's examples of giving to us her family, to her church, to her neighbors, and community are some of my earliest and strongest memories. Her giving was life long; even when she was wheel chair bound she had a telephone ministry to those in need of a listening ear. Our adult actions of giving teach our children to be generous from a young age. I love watching our St. Dominic children come forward to put their stewardship mite in the white basket. Even the very little ones learn that they need to leave it there and not take something back. What a wonderful lesson our parents are teaching this next generation of church.

Maryknoll magazine, the bimonthly communication from the Maryknoll missionary order, published their yearly student essay contest winners this past month. The theme this year was to comment on the juxtaposing of the quotes, "it's all about me" and Jesus' command, "love your neighbor as yourself". The winner, a seventh grader from Louisiana, wrote a powerful essay stating that it is "all about me" when he follows Jesus' command to love by taking responsibility to help those in need. He writes "it is all about me when I do my part to be more like Jesus, humble myself and make a difference" in the lives of those in my community. He also writes that his family stresses the importance of giving and that as a family they volunteer to help others.

I've noticed that often families at St. Dominic's include their children when they volunteer to help out with projects at church. What wonderful examples we are to this next generation of Catholics when we use our time, talents, and financial resources for the common good. Thank you all for your continued generosity to the parish which allows us as a community to share through our tithes. Especially thank you to those who continue to give earmarked funds for the Haitian Development Fund. The work of rebuilding this devastated country is a very long-term process.

Momento de Corresponsabilidad

Feliz Día de las Madres! Si usted es una madre por nacimiento o adopción, la madrina de uno, la abuela, una bisabuela, una tía, o una hija o un hijo este es un día para celebrar la vida que da la administración de la maternidad., Esta demanda de el compartir la vida con otro ser humano es la administración en su definición más básica. Hay tanto como madres, abuelas, madrinas y tías que podemos enseñar a la próxima generación de compartir lo que se nos ha dado.

ejemplos de mi madre de dar a nosotros su familia, a su iglesia, a sus vecinos y la comunidad son algunos de mis primeros y más fuertes recuerdos. Su entrega se larga vida, incluso cuando ella estaba en silla de ruedas de la envoltura que había un ministerio de teléfono a los de necesidad de un oído atento. Nuestro acciones de los adultos de dar a enseñar a nuestros niños a ser generosos desde una edad temprana. Me encanta ver a nuestros niños de San Domingo presentará a poner su gestión del ácaro en la canasta blanca. incluso en los más pequeños aprenden que necesidad de salir de allí y no tener algo a cambio. ¡Qué maravillosa lección de nuestros padres están enseñando esta nueva generación de la iglesia.

Revista Maryknoll, la comunicación cada dos meses a partir de la orden Maryknoll misionera, publicaron sus anual de los estudiantes ganadores del concurso de ensayos de este mes pasado. El tema de este año fue hacer un comentario sobre la yuxtaposición de las citas, "es todo sobre mí" y el mandato de Jesús, "el amor a tu prójimo como a ti mismo ". La ganadora, una estudiante de séptimo grado de la Louisiana, escribió un ensayo de gran alcance que indique que es" todo sobre mí "cuando él sigue el mandato de Jesús de amar al asumir la responsabilidad de ayudar a los necesitados. Escribe" es todo acerca de mí cuando hago mi parte para ser más como Jesús, humillarme y hacer una diferencia "en las vidas de los de mi comunidad. Él también escribe que su familia hace hincapié en la importancia de dar y que a medida que una familia se ofrecen como voluntarios para ayudar a otros.

He notado que a menudo las familias en Santo Domingo incluyen a sus hijos cuando se ofrezca voluntario para ayudar con proyectos en la iglesia. ¿Qué ejemplos maravillosos que somos de esta nueva generación de católicos cuando utilizamos nuestro tiempo, talentos y recursos financieros para la común buena. Gracias a todos por su continua generosidad a la parroquia que nos permite como una comunidad para compartir a través de nuestro diezmo. Especialmente gracias a los que seguir dando destinado fondos para el Fondo de Desarrollo de Haití. El trabajo de reconstrucción de este país devastado es muy largo proceso de plazo.

Conversaciones Sagradas

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

¿Acaso no te molesta cuando las personas te calumnian? Imagínate lo mucho que les molesto a Pablo y Bernabé cuando esos “hermanos” de Judea llegaron a Antioquía y trataron de alborotar a los gentiles que habían aceptado a Cristo. ¿Qué, cómo que fueron bautizados pero no les hicieron circuncisión? No, no, eso no es lo que Jesús ha ordenado, él espera que todos los gentiles actúen como judíos, si es que quieren ser salvos. Nosotros sabemos lo que Jesús quiere, somos la autoridad en esto. No se atrevan a escuchar a Pablo, él no sabe nada, ni siquiera conoció a Jesús.

Da miedo pensar lo que pudo haber pasado si Pablo se hubiera dado por vencido, si no hubiera confiado en la guía del Espíritu para que abriera el camino de salvación a los gentiles. El movimiento de Jesús habría desvanecido antes de finalizar el primer siglo. Mas el Espíritu Santo inspiró a Pablo a plantear un pensamiento revolucionario: ¿Será posible que Jesús es para todos nosotros? al tener respuesta a esta pregunta, nada lo detendría de llevar a Cristo a los gentiles del mundo antiguo, y de ésta manera a nosotros.

No hay duda de que esa es la obra del Espíritu – abrir nuestros corazones grandemente, para que Jesús haga algo maravilloso y nuevo. Algo nuevo. Me gusta como suena eso. Pentecostés nos espera.

Compartiendo la Palabra de Dios en el Hogar:

¿Puedes sentir como el Espíritu te usa para hacer algo nuevo y maravilloso?

The Story and You TM

Sacred Conversations

6th Sunday of Easter

Don't you hate it when people misquote you or mislead other people about you? Think how infuriating it must have been for Paul and Barnabas when those “brothers” from Judea showed up in Antioch and tried to upset the peace of the Gentiles there who had received Christ. What? You were baptized but not circumcised? No, no, that's not what Jesus demands. He expects all Gentile men to behave like Jews if they want to be saved. We know what Jesus wants. We're the authorities. Don't listen to Paul. What does he know? He never even knew Jesus.

It's scary to think about what would have happened to the world if Paul had caved into that. If he hadn't trusted completely in the Spirit's guidance to open the way of salvation to the Gentiles, the Jesus Movement would certainly have died out before the end of the first century. Instead, the Holy Spirit inspired him to ask an entirely revolutionary thought: could it be that Jesus is for all of us? And once he knew the answer to that, nothing could stop him from bringing Christ to the Gentiles of the ancient world, and so to us.

I guess that's the Spirit's signature work—to open our hearts wide enough for Jesus to do something wonderful and new. Something new. I like the sound of that. Pentecost awaits.

Sharing God's Word at Home:

Can you sense the Spirit urging you to do something new and wonderful?

Yes to Life, Again

Where I live, winter is a raw and bitter, wind-swept and white, unpredictable and uncompromising time of year. We go from dry, cold, grey days to deep wet frozen days. The pavement turns from white snow to black ice from one moment to the other. The wind howls around the house, whipping wet leaves and soft snowflakes with it. One black night everything in sight is fogged in dark; the next morning even the inner city is clear and clean and deep, deep white. Then we stay inside, make popcorn, light the fire, curl up in blankets and play games.

Indeed, winter, for us, is an experience in the struggles of life, in its twists and turns, in its great challenges and small triumphs. We watch where we walk now, we cling to hand rails from place to place, we drive slowly, deliberately, cautiously from corner to corner. We go through life more thoughtfully, more quietly, more prudently—with an eye to what might happen as well as for what is happening. We manage it all quite well, of course, but not cavalierly. Every step in life demands attention then.

Finally, in the north, one day, almost without warning, Spring comes. You smell it. You taste it in the air. You watch pregnant trees explode with new bloom. Suddenly. And you know. You know that life has changed, that life is new again.

Around the neighborhood, the windows begin to open, one at a time, tentatively at first, one here, then another one there. Then all at once, it seems, the street is open and bold with life.

Children appear in the middle of the road, bouncing balls, laughing loudly. The corner ice-cream stand, weeks early, opens and calls the children out of their small, old houses like the Pied Piper of play. And all us older people feel our limbs loosen a bit and our hearts begin to smile.

It is an exercise in “yes,” this slip-slide from winter to spring. Yes to today; yes to tomorrow; yes to life again. We all come out of the tomb of winter, new and bright with promise. It is “yes” to life time now, however old, however jaded we may be. It is the rediscovery of possibility again.

The turn of the seasons in the north is a kaleidoscope of the seasons of life, of the face of God in time, of the very process of what it means to be alive.

In the seasons we see the story of ourselves played out: early on, life without shape; later, life in pursuit of direction; finally, life on the way to its horizon; at the end, life, mellowed, going down into the sea of eternity. Through all of them, like warp and woof, lies the essential pattern, the obligation to say “yes.”

Yes, yes, yes life teaches us to say. Yes, yes, yes, we must learn to say back. Otherwise, we will surely die long before we have ever learned to live.
