From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

The second reading today contains the somber warning that Jesus is coming soon and will bring to each person the reward that his or her conduct deserves. Has our stewardship of the blessings entrusted to us been such that we could respond joyfully, "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

This past Tuesday we completed the final "punch list" (which is a check list) for the first phase of our preservation project of the Church. One down, four to go! The second phase is in process. I anticipate its work being done next summer, God willing. The grants and cash match for this phase are secure and we are ready to go. After the second phase the Church building (The Foundations Phase) will be watertight and the last three phases will address other issues within it. Before the third phase we will have to have another capital campaign to get our cash match for the grants we will be applying for. Then, we will move forward with that phase too. A huge thanks to all who have contributed to the preservation project so far. We have been blessed in so many ways!

Thanks to Gerard and the St. Dominic Music Ministry for the lovely May Concert on Saturday night. What a great celebration through music of who we are as a parish family in the midst of our 120th Anniversary celebrations. The May Crowning brought back warm memories of Mary, Mothers and a nurturing God in our midst. May God bless each of you as richly as you bless our family of faith with your talents and time.

Under the direction of Christina Colmenero we are making our Church Hall available for rent to the public. We are finding that there is a bit of a learning curve here. But, our Hall is becoming a significant source of funds for our parish. So, it is imperative that if you anticipate using the Hall in any way that you schedule its use through the Parish Office. Our priorities in scheduling the Hall are: First, programs of the Parish; Second, registered families of the Parish; Third, non-registered families. So, get your dates for Hall use to Adeline in the Office as soon as possible. Thank you!

May God continue to bless our mothers and the holy women in our lives. We all give thanks to you for giving and sustaining life within us.

Blessings upon your week!
With Pastoral Affection,

Fr. Clint, O.P.

Queridos amigos,

La segunda lectura de hoy contiene la sombría advertencia de que Jesús viene pronto y traerá a cada persona la recompensa que su conducta merece. Tiene nuestra corresponsabilidad de las bendiciones que nos han confiado sido tal que podríamos responder con alegría: "¡Amén! Ven, Señor Jesús! "

El pasado martes se completó la final "lista de verificación" (que es una lista de verificación) para la primera fase de nuestro proyecto de conservación de la Iglesia. Uno menos, de cuatro a ir! La segunda fase está en proceso. Anticipo que su labor está haciendo el próximo verano, si Dios quiere. Las subvenciones en efectivo y el partido de esta fase son seguros y estamos dispuestos a ir. Después de la segunda fase del edificio de la Iglesia (la fase de Fundaciones) se estanca y las tres últimas fases se abordarán otros temas dentro de ella. Antes de la tercera fase se tendrá que tener otra campaña de capital para nuestro partido en efectivo para las subvenciones que se solicitan. Entonces, vamos a seguir adelante con esa etapa también. Un enorme agradecimiento a todos los que han contribuido al proyecto de conservación hasta el momento. Hemos sido bendecidos de tantas maneras!

Gracias a Gerard y el Ministerio de Música de Santo Domingo por la bella Concierto de mayo en la noche del sábado. ¡Qué gran fiesta con la música de lo que somos como una familia parroquial en medio de las celebraciones del aniversario 120. La Coronación de mayo trajo gratos recuerdos de María, la madre y una crianza Dios entre nosotros. Que Dios bendiga a cada uno de ustedes tan rico como los bendiga a nuestra familia de la fe con su talento y tiempo.

Bajo la dirección de Christina Colmenero estamos haciendo nuestro Salón de la Iglesia disponible para el alquiler al público. Estamos encontrando que hay un poco de una curva de aprendizaje aquí. Pero, nuestro salón se está convirtiendo en una fuente importante de fondos para nuestra parroquia. Por lo tanto, es imperativo que si se anticipa el uso del Salón de ninguna manera que programe su uso a través de la Oficina Parroquial. Nuestras prioridades en la programación de la Salón son los siguientes: En primer lugar, los programas de la Parroquia; familias segundo lugar, registrados de la parroquia; familias tercer lugar, no registrados. Así pues, consiga sus fechas para el uso de Salón. Llame a la Adeline en la Oficina tan pronto como sea posible. ¡Gracias!

Que Dios siga bendiciendo a nuestras madres y las santas mujeres en nuestras vidas. Todos damos gracias a ustedes para dar y mantener la vida dentro de nosotros.

Bendiciones en su semana!
Con Afecto Pastoral,

Padre Clint, O.P.

From the Liturgy & Music Desk:
(If you have questions contact Gerard)
Del Ministerio de la Liturgia y de la Música:

Today we celebrate The Ascension of the Lord, on the Seventh Sunday of Easter in our 120th year as a parish. We find ourselves between the time that Jesus is taken up to heaven, and the time the promised Advocate, the Holy Spirit, is sent next week, at Pentecost.

For many years the Ascension was celebrated on the Thursday before the Seventh Sunday of Easter, forty days after Easter. The only scriptural reference to these forty days we hear today in the first reading from Acts, "He, [Jesus], presented himself alive to them...appearing to them during forty days..." _Whether we celebrate on Thursday or Sunday, we are very near to the end of the Easter Season. Keep that Alleluia alive in your hearts and continue to sing it out loud and clear!

Remember that Pentecost is next weekend, May 22/23. Please wear something red to Mass or, if you have purchased a 120th Year shirt of any color, wear it to Mass

Hoy celebramos la Ascensión del Señor, en el Séptimo Domingo de Pascua en nuestro año 120o como parroquia. Nos encontramos entre el momento en que Jesús es llevado al cielo, y el tiempo que prometió Abogado, el Espíritu Santo, se envía la próxima semana, en Pentecostés.

Durante muchos años la Ascensión se celebra el jueves antes del Séptimo Domingo de Pascua, cuarenta días después de Pascua. La única referencia bíblica a estos cuarenta días que escuchamos hoy en la primera lectura de los Hechos: "Él [Jesús], se presentó vivo con ellos ... cuando se les aparece durante cuarenta días ..." Ya sea que se celebra el jueves o el domingo, estamos muy cerca de la final de la temporada de Pascua. Tenga eso Aleluya vivo en sus corazones y continuar a cantar en voz alta y clara!

Recuerde que Pentecostés es próximo fin de semana, de mayo 22/23. Por favor, use algo rojo a misa o, si usted ha comprado una camisa Año 120 ° de cualquier color, úselo a misa

The New Pastor of Holy Rosary Parish, Father Noé Carreón, discovered all these marvelous historic photos of the church and school in the rectory across the street and is putting together a history of the school on a DVD as part of a fundraising effort. Holy Rosary Parish at 4688 Pearl Street in Globeville would like to reach out to all former students and graduates of Holy Rosary School, which was in operation from 1929 to 1969. The parish is creating a photographic history of the former school that will be available on a DVD. The building was heavily damaged when water pipes broke in November of 2008 and work is underway to restore and reopen the school as a parish center. Call the parish office at 303-297-1962 between 9 am and 1 pm or send an email to holy.rosary@live.com

The Tithing subcommittee of the Stewardship Committee met recently to allocate the 3% tithes for March. $400.00 was given to Catholic Relief Services, the Archdiocesan mandated collection for March. Catholic Relief Services is the U.S. Churches' international relief agency. They work around the world partnering with local church organizations providing funds for programs which provide immediate relief to countries suffering natural or human made disasters. A larger portion of donated funds provide for development programs which help people so that they no longer need to be without the necessities of life. In many countries they sponsor water projects so that people have access to a steady supply of clean water for drinking, bathing, cooking, and irrigating crops. Such projects provide resources to help people become self-sufficient. Catholic Relief Services has sponsored many such development projects in Haiti and are now providing massive amounts of supplies of food, water, and materials for reconstruction needed after the disastrous earthquake.

Clinica Tepeyac was also allocated $400.00. Members of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish created Clinica Tepeyac in 1994 to address the lack of affordable, culturally sensitive health care in Denver for the uninsured and underinsured. That need still continues and has grown. The Clinica is a not for profit, charitable organization now located in the Globeville neighborhood of North Denver. Yearly they provide primary and preventative healthcare to over 15,000 people. The small clinic staff can provide such services because they have many volunteer medical providers, medical students, and clerical workers.

Lastly but certainly not least, $110.63 was allocated to our own Sunday Downtown Lunch Program. Today, parishioners will distribute 250 sack lunches to the homeless downtown where there are few resources for food on Sundays. A large crew of volunteers will have made the sandwiches and packed the sacks on Saturday. We will be regularly be giving this program a grant.

Your stewardship gifts have gone far this month. Thank you for your generosity. And always remember that your gift not only benefits St. Dominic's but people around the world.

Conversaciones Sagradas

Séptimo Domingo de Pascua

Para serles honestos, aún no sabemos que pasó realmente, lo vimos crucificado en ese árbol. Desde lejos contemplamos todo lo que sucedió. La gente dice que él volteó hacia el ladrón y le dijo que él estaría a su lado en el Paraíso ese mismo día. Y por supuesto todos vimos el eclipse solar, y hasta aquellos de nosotros a una distancia prudente escuchamos sus súplicas, Padre, en tus manos encomiendo mi espíritu, y entonces respiró por última vez.

Estoy segura que ya escucharon lo que pasó después, las personas están hablando sobre esto en todo Jerusalén y hasta en Galilea. Su cuerpo desapareció de la tumba, él se le apareció a dos de nosotros en el camino de regreso a Emaú. Cefas también lo vio y vino a decírnos, estábamos escondidos en el mismo cuarto donde tuvimos la última cena con él. Y no, no era un fantasma, ¡realmente estaba vivo! ¡Y todavía estamos increíblemente llenos de alegría! De alguna forma él abrió nuestra mente y nuestro entendimiento. La vida como la conocíamos es ahora completamente diferente.

Hoy estuvimos nuevamente con él, nos llevó a Betania y nos dijo las palabras más hermosas. Hemos de ser sus testigos hasta el final de los tiempos, ¡también prometió enviarnos el poder del Espíritu Santo en unos cuantos días! No sabemos que significa eso pero no saldremos de la ciudad hasta que esto suceda. ¿Qué hará el Espíritu? ¿Cómo seremos cambiados? ¿Será posible que una vez más acontezca un gran milagro? Esperamos llenos de alegría y esperanza. ¿Qué dones del Espíritu te gustaría experimentar de forma más intensa?

Sacred Conversations

Seventh Sunday of Easter

To be honest, we still don't really know what happened. We saw him crucified on that tree. We watched the whole terrifying thing from a distance. People are saying that he turned to the thief next to him and told him that he would be with him that very day in Paradise. And then of course we all saw the eclipse of the sun, and even those of us at a safe distance heard him cry out, Father, into your hands I commend my spirit. And then he breathed his last.

But I'm sure you've heard what happened next. People are talking about it all over Jerusalem and even up in Galilee. His body is gone from the tomb. He has appeared to two of our number as they were returning to Emmaus. Cephas saw him too, and then he came to us while we were hiding in the same room where we had our last meal with him. And he wasn't a ghost, he was really alive! And we are still incredulous with joy! Somehow he opened our memories and our understanding. Life as we knew it is completely different now.

Today we were with him again. He led us out towards Bethany and said the most beautiful words to us. We are to be his witnesses, even to the ends of the earth. And he promised to send us power from the Holy Spirit in just a few days! We don't know what that means, but we won't leave the city until it happens. What will the spirit do? How will we be changed? Is it possible that, once again, a great miracle will happen here? We wait in joyful hope.

As we anticipate the great feast of Pentecost, what gifts of the Spirit would you most like to experience in a more powerful way?

For Fifty Great Days

For life to become its own exhilarant, we must learn to live it consciously, to live it deeply, to live it to the brim, beyond the visible to the meaningful. Somehow, in the midst of the purely natural, we must become aware of what is more than simply natural. We must cross the line between matter and spirit, between time and timelessness. We must allow one to become the other so that the gifts of neither may be lost, so that the electricity of each can be released in us.

That kind of encompassing awareness is clear in the voices of poets whose souls find themselves routinely, eternally seized by a sunset, a single rose, the bleak sound of a nightingale caged and alone, the thundering crash of waves against cliffs too high, too dark to notice. It is obvious in the spirits of those who learn to see life more as a bridge to somewhere else than an excursion into deeper and deeper nothingness. It is, then, also clearly of the essence of those we call spiritual. These are the people who live on both levels of life at once, both the material and the spiritual, and find in them the unity that makes life worth living. These are all people who see more in the moment than the moment itself.

The Christian feast of Pentecost developed late in the fourth century, but it did not mean the feast day fifty days after Easter. It meant “the great fifty days,” or “the fifty days of Easter.” The phrase is an important one in a world that runs from one event to another, barely present at any of them. The word meant “the fifty days of Easter,” not “the fifty days after Easter.” This was an entire period of rejoicing. It was Paschaltide or Eastertide, not one day among many but many days of wonder and joy and new life all in a row.

Liturgically, it is a period of unmitigated celebration. There is a sense of holy abandonment to this space between the already-but-not-yet feel of life, a kind of reckless giddiness in the church year. For fifty great days, the heart of the Christian community has a sense of ultimate fulfillment.

The consciousness of the ongoing presence of God overtakes us: we are not orphans. We are not wanderers anymore. We are not left to wonder now about what is really our fate. We already know it. We have already seen it among us. There is nothing to wait for now except for the waiting to be over. It is a delicious time. A shaft of light has come to pierce the uncertainties of the seeking. We are living now with a torch in our hands, however dark the darkness.

“Your sorrow will be turned into joy,” Jesus promised. And for fifty days we allow ourselves to be caught up in the consciousness of it as incomplete, of course, but coming, clearly coming. We are indeed now risen with Christ.

We come to know during these great fifty days not only who Jesus is but who we are meant to be, as a result. It is the coming home of the Christian to the spiritual self. It is, at long last, the comprehension of what it means to live the interior life in an exterior world, to grasp the real meaning of spiritual maturity.

Now the spiritual seeker understands the poet’s single-minded search for the one thing that matters, the saint’s understanding of the blur between the material and the spiritual.
