From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

Our Baptism, like the Lord's, is a consecration to service. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us that "...there is a fundamental obligation arising from the Sacrament of Baptism that people place their gifts, their resources – their selves – at God's service in and through the Church."

Again I'd like to thank all of you for making our St. Dominic 2010 such a wonderful year of praise and discipleship. You continue to clock over 1,200 hours of volunteer service to your Parish Family and for that I am profoundly grateful. I've come to understand that this is one of the hallmarks of St. Dominic – All generously give according to their ability. Thank you and may God bless you as richly as you bless our family.

Now that the major winter holidays are settling into the past, my heart is especially full of gratitude to our Music Ministry, Stewardship Ministry and Religious Education. Each in unique and valued ways came together to present a very blessed and grace-filled Advent and Christmas Season. Working together, each group and individual of the groups brought your best to the finest of our celebrations. Special thanks to the leadership of these groups and to each individual member. Your charity, collaboration and team work is an inspiration to all. You remind me that Jesus does reign!

Thanks to all for making our visitors feel welcome each week at the Masses. The idea to give them a welcome card was a good idea and makes them feel a part of our family if even for a few hours. Your generosity and courage in reaching out to welcome the guests is an inspiration to all who watch. I challenge more to do the same.

Moving into the second half of my fifth year now, we are planning to have a parish evaluation of the Pastoral Staff and me during the month of February. Please be remembering now where we have walked together during the past few years and be prepared to put pencil to paper when called upon to do in a few weeks. May God continue to bless the work of the parish well into the future.

May God continue to bless you and your families during this Christmas Octave of prayer.

With Pastoral Affection,
Fr. Clint, O.P.

Queridos amigos,

Nuestro bautismo, como el Señor, es una consagración al servicio. Pastoral de los obispos sobre la administración nos recuerda que "... no es una obligación fundamental que se plantea desde el Sacramento del Bautismo que las personas coloquen sus dones, sus recursos - ellos mismos - Al servicio de Dios en ya través de la Iglesia"

Una vez más me gustaría dar las gracias a todos ustedes por hacer de nuestro Santo Domingo 2010 como un año maravilloso de la alabanza y el discipulado. Se continúa con el reloj más de 1.200 horas de servicio voluntario a su familia de la parroquia y por eso estoy profundamente agradecido. He llegado a comprender que esta es una de las señas de identidad de Santo Domingo - Todos generosamente dar según su capacidad. Gracias y que Dios te bendiga en abundancia en los bendiga a nuestra familia.

Ahora que las vacaciones de invierno más importantes son la solución en el pasado, mi corazón está todo lleno de gratitud a nuestro Ministerio de Música, Ministerio de Administración y Educación Religiosa. Cada uno en una forma única y valorada se unieron para presentar un muy bendecido y lleno de gracia, Adviento y Navidad. Trabajando juntos, cada grupo e individuales de los grupos trabajo lo mejor para los mejores de nuestras celebraciones. Un agradecimiento especial a los dirigentes de estos grupos ya cada miembro individual. Su caridad, colaboración y trabajo en equipo es una inspiración para todos. Usted me recuerda que Jesús el que reina!

Gracias a todos por hacer que nuestros visitantes se sientan bienvenidos cada semana en las misas. La idea de darles una tarjeta de bienvenida fue una buena idea y les hace sentirse parte de nuestra familia aunque sea por unas horas. Su generosidad y el coraje para llegar a acoger a los huéspedes es una inspiración para todos los que ven. Yo reto más para hacer lo mismo.

Entrando en la segunda mitad de mi quinto año ahora, estamos planeando tener una evaluación parroquial de la Pastoral de Personal y yo durante el mes de febrero. Por favor, recordar ahora que hemos caminado juntos durante los últimos años y estar preparados para poner un lápiz al papel cuando han de hacer en un par de semanas. Que Dios continúe bendiciendo a la labor de la parroquia en el futuro.

Que Dios siga bendiciendo a usted ya su familia durante este octave de Navidad de la oración.
Con Afecto Pastoral,
P. Clint, O.P.

The Liturgy & Music Desk:

by Gerard DiMartini

Liturgy Corner – Jan9 2011

Beloved members of Saint Dominic Parish, this weekend we celebrate The Baptism of the Lord which marks the end of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. After Jesus is baptized by John, Matthew tells us that, a voice came from the heavens saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." What a wonderful thing that would be to hear our Lord address us as "Beloved".

Art & Environment: On Sunday, January 9, following the 11:30 Mass, [let's try for 12:45pm], we will be taking down the Christmas Environment and preparing for Ordinary Time. Please consider sharing your time and talent with the members of the Art and Environment Committee.

You may have noticed a few extra musicians at Christmas, if you just wish to show your appreciation for them or for our regular accompanists; you can find brown music ministry envelopes at all the doors of the church. Feel free to place those in the regular collection throughout the Christmas Season. Thank you for your generosity.

Hospitality:

If you did not invite someone to come to Mass with you at St. Dominic Church for Christmas, you can still invite them sometime this year!

Hospitality Theme

Opportunities for hospitality sneak up on us all the time, and they always offer us a choice about how we will respond. Sometimes these opportunities are very close to home and begin with extending hospitality to ourselves. The receptivity, reverence, and generosity we show to ourselves will act as a sure foundation for the hospitality that we extend to those in the ever-widening circles of relationship in our lives. Hospitality begins in our spiritual core, where we discover a true self that is deeply connected with divinity. Offering receptivity, reverence, and generosity to the self helps us to love and accept ourselves, to heal and discover a deeper, broader, bigger self than we knew we were. This true self, deeply connected with God and love, becomes the great source of hospitality within us. (from Hospitality – the Sacred Art by Nanette Sawyer)

Tema de Hospitalidad

Oportunidades para la hospitalidad sigilosamente a nosotros todo el tiempo, y siempre nos ofrecen la posibilidad de elegir cómo vamos a responder. A veces, estas oportunidades son muy cerca de casa y comenzar con la extensión de la hospitalidad a nosotros mismos. Además, su reverencia, y la generosidad que mostramos a nosotros mismos actuará como una base segura para la hospitalidad que se extienden a las de los círculos cada vez más amplio de las relaciones en nuestras vidas. Hospitalidad comienza en nuestro núcleo espiritual, donde se descubre una verdad que sí está profundamente relacionada con la divinidad. Ofreciendo la receptividad, la reverencia y la generosidad a la propia nos ayuda a amar y aceptar a nosotros mismos, para sanar y descubre un conocimiento más profundo, más amplio, más libre de lo que creíamos que éramos. Este verdadero yo, profundamente relacionada con Dios y el amor, se convierte en la gran fuente de la hospitalidad dentro de nosotros. (desde la Hospitalidad - el de Arte Sacro de Nanette Sawyer)

Business

On December 18th hygiene items for the homeless were collected at all Masses and given to The Volunteers of America to distribute. People were very generous and over 200 bags were collected.

A planning committee of Bridgett, Shelia and Barbara Skolness will meet to discuss a Newcomers meal for newly registered people. They will check to see how many new people have registered so they can get some idea of how large a venue they will need and then set a time and place.

Stewardship Sunday will be held September 10th and 11th.

Discussion was held last month about putting a speaker in the reconciliation/cry room so it would be easier to hear Mass. Gerard volunteered to put up a speaker and put an announcement in the bulletin to let people know that we have a cry room.

Fr. Clint – During the February meeting Father will leave the meeting and the stewardship committee will hold a discussion/evaluation about the parish.

The next meeting is Tuesday, February 1st, 2011 at 7pm.

Life Insurance

The discussion of life insurance is not one of those topics that typically bring willing participants to the table. In many instances, it's a result of an event that has taken place in or near a family, causing them to consider the financial consequences if such protection were not in place.

As God's children, we are called to protect those around us, especially our family. To that end, it is important that we determine the appropriate amount and type of protection, based upon your particular situation. When estimating the amount of coverage that appropriate for your situation, take into consideration all of your outstanding debt; like credit cards, personal loans, and any mortgages on the home you live in. Then, include an amount, typically $10,000-25,000 for final expenses, which include funeral costs and any outstanding medical expenses.

When looking at the type of coverage you should have there are two things to remember:

1. Term insurance is typically the least expensive, but the cost can dramatically rise in the future
2. Permanent insurance is more expensive than term, but typically, the cost does not change in the future

Sometimes, due to limited income, term insurance is the only reasonable way to protect your family. If possible, consider purchasing a portion of your insurance as permanent coverage, especially when a need for coverage can extend further into the future than your typical family debt.

Unfortunately, it's not always that simple to determine how much or what type of life insurance might be right for you and your family. In those cases, you should seek the advice of a licensed insurance professional.

Seguro de Vida

La discusión del seguro de vida no es uno de esos temas que suelen traer los participantes dispuestos a la mesa. En muchos casos, es resultado de un evento que ha tenido lugar en o cerca de una familia, haciendo que considerar las consecuencias financieras si dicha protección no se encontraban en el lugar.

Como hijos de Dios, estamos llamados a proteger a los que nos rodean, especialmente a nuestra familia. Para ello, es importante que determinar la cantidad adecuada y el tipo de protección, basado en su situación particular. Al estimar la cantidad de cobertura que corresponda a su situación, tener en cuenta todas sus deudas pendientes, como las tarjetas de crédito, préstamos personales, hipotecas y cualquier otra en la casa en la que vivimos. A continuación, se incluye una suma, por lo general $ 10.000-25.000 para el final gastos, que incluyen los gastos funerarios y gastos médicos pendientes.

Al analizar el tipo de cobertura que debe tener, hay dos cosas para recordar:

1. El seguro temporal suele ser la menos costosa, pero el costo puede aumentar considerablemente en el futuro
2. Seguro permanente es más caro que plazo, pero por lo general, el costo no cambia en el futuro

A veces, debido a bajos ingresos, seguro de término es la única manera razonable de proteger a su familia. Si es posible, considere la compra de una porción de su seguro de la cobertura permanente, especialmente cuando la necesidad de cobertura se puede ampliar en el futuro de su deuda familia típica.

Por desgracia, no siempre es tan sencillo para determinar la cantidad y qué tipo de seguro de vida podría ser adecuado para usted y su familia. En esos casos, usted debe buscar el consejo de un profesional de seguros con licencia.

Stewardship Moment

As I write this we have just celebrated the great Feast of the Epiphany--God being manifested to the gentiles, the non-Jews. And today we celebrate the manifestation at the Jordan when Jesus is baptized by John the Baptist. Last week in the second reading St. Paul tells the Ephesians that he is sharing in the "stewardship of God's grace" that was given to him for their benefit. Like Paul each of us share in God's grace. We each of us needs to open ourselves to this grace, it is always there. Once we receive this gift we cannot keep it for ourselves, if we do it will wither and die. God is manifest to each of us through persons, events, words, nature. Our daily lives are full of these manifestations and God provides stars to illuminate our way. But our eyes, ears, being needs to be open to receiving these glimpses of God. We need to be generous stewards of this grace, sharing ourselves, our faith with others. The more we practice stewardship in sharing our time the more time we seem to have and the fuller our lives become. When we share our gifts of organization, or art, or our strong hands, or any other talent the more we meet people who enrich our lives. And when we share our money with our parish and those in need the more we find that we can indeed do with less. None of this comes without thought and struggle on our part but the struggle is worth it in an enriched life for ourselves, our families, our communities, and our world.

The New Year is always a good time to make changes in our lives. St. Dominic Parish is full of opportunities to encounter God made present. Are you volunteering this Sunday afternoon to help take down our Christmas environment? Or is this a good year for you to join one of the choirs? Music has always transported me to the divine. And every week you have the opportunity to donate a dollar or two or three more to the collection. Remember that January's tithe will be for the Retired Religious priests, brothers, and sisters. The more you give the more we will have to share with these valiant men and women who taught us our faith. Our daily lives are full of God's presence, look up, look around and see.

Momento de Corresponsabilidad

Mientras escribo esto acabamos de celebrar la gran Fiesta de la Epifanía del Señor - Dios se manifiesta a los gentiles, los no-Judios. Y hoy celebramos la manifestación en el Jordán, cuando Jesús es bautizado por Juan el Bautista. La semana pasada en la segunda lectura de San Pablo le dice a los Efesios, que es la participación en la "administración de la gracia de Dios" que se le dio para su beneficio. Al igual que Pablo cada uno de nosotros participar en la gracia de Dios. Cada uno de nosotros tiene que abrirnos a la gracia, que siempre está ahí. Una vez que recibamos este regalo que no podemos guardar para nosotros mismos, si lo hacemos se marchitan y mueren. Dios se manifiesta a cada uno de nosotros a través de personas, eventos, es decir, la naturaleza. Nuestra vida diaria está llena de estas manifestaciones y que Dios provee estrellas para iluminar nuestro camino. Pero nuestros ojos, los oídos, se debe estar abierto a recibir estas visiones de Dios. Tenemos que ser generosos administradores de esta gracia, el intercambio de nosotros mismos, nuestra fe con otros. Cuanto más la corresponsabilidad práctica de compartir nuestro tiempo, más tiempo parece que tenemos y la más completa convertido nuestras vidas. Cuando compartimos nuestros dones de la organización, o el arte, o las manos fuertes, o cualquier otro talento más nos encontramos con personas que enriquecen nuestras vidas. Y cuando compartimos nuestro dinero con nuestra parroquia y los que necesitan más nos encontramos con que sí podemos hacer con menos. Nada de esto viene sin el pensamiento y la lucha por nuestra parte, pero la lucha vale la pena en una vida enriquecida por nosotros mismos, nuestras familias, nuestras comunidades y nuestro mundo.

El nuevo año es siempre un buen momento para hacer cambios en nuestras vidas. Parroquia de Santo Domingo está lleno de oportunidades para encontrar a Dios se hace presente. Si eres voluntario este domingo por la tarde para ayudar a acabar con nuestro medio ambiente de Navidad? ¿O es este un buen año para que se una a uno de los coros? La música siempre me ha transportado a lo divino. Y cada semana tienes la oportunidad de donar un dólar o dos o tres más para la colección. Recuerde que el diezmo de enero será para los sacerdotes jubilados religiosas, hermanos y hermanas. Cuanto más das, más vamos a tener que compartir con estos valientes hombres y mujeres que nos enseña nuestra fe. Nuestra vida diaria está llena de la presencia de Dios, buscar, mirar alrededor y ver.

Colorado Immigrant Rights Coalition

Governor Ritter to Sign on to Secure Communities Despite Widespread Opposition

Legal, victim protection, faith, law enforcement, advocacy, and community groups remain opposed to the Secure Communities program because the proposed memorandum does not address the program's flaws

Denver, CO – Today, Governor Bill Ritter plans to sign a memorandum of agreement with Immigration and Customs Enforcement to activate the flawed Secure Communities program in Colorado. Secure Communities is a misguided immigration enforcement program that shares the biometric data of persons that are arrested and fingerprinted with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). In reality, the program functions as an overbroad immigration dragnet that undercuts community policing efforts, destroys families, and drives victims and witnesses of crime underground.

Hans Meyer, Policy Director for the Colorado Immigrant Rights Coalition, explained, “The proposed modifications to the program do little, if anything, to limit the overbroad Arizona-style dragnet effect of Secure Communities or protect victims or witnesses of crime from being reported to ICE. The only certain outcomes will be to destroy community policing efforts while failing to address the most insidious aspects of ICE’s secretive mass deportation program.”

“Countless elected leaders, law enforcement, professional associations, and grassroots organizations throughout Colorado oppose the Secure Communities dragnet because it moves Colorado one step closer to the destructive policies of Arizona, where local law enforcement officers are used as de facto immigration agents.”

Diego Hunt, President of the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association, commented, “The proposed memorandum does not address the inevitable harm the program will cause to the already tenuous relationship between law enforcement and the State’s Latino community – a concern the CHBA and other organizations have previously raised with the Governor.”

David Felice, Chief of Police in Durango, said: “Without substantive modifications to limit the scope of the program and ensure local control over participation, we are concerned that Secure Communities may have a negative effect on public safety in our community.”

‘Jazmin,’ an undocumented survivor of domestic abuse, said, "With a law like Secure Communities in place, I won't call the police anymore – not just for a crime against me, but for a crime against anyone. When I was a victim, I was more scared of the police than the person that I was reporting."

Denver City Councilman Paul Lopez added, “Without protections to limit the scope of the program and ensure local control over participation, Secure Communities may have a negative effect on public safety and unknown fiscal impacts to state and local governments.”

Art Way, Racial Justice Organizer with the Colorado Progressive Coalition, said, “Unfortunately, due to the prejudicial aspect of the immigration debate, deportation programs such as Secure Communities can on occasion be fertile ground for impermissible factors such as race and nationality to permeate actions of law enforcement.”

Chris Newman, Legal Director for the National Day Labor Organizing Network said, “In the past, ICE has used secrecy and misrepresentation to induce states' participation in the program. Colorado's MOA is so disappointing because Governor Ritter, a former prosecutor, appeared to be rising above difficult politics in an earnest effort get a good policy for the state. Instead, he appears to have capitulated to ICE’s pressure.”

Organizer Judith Marquez from Rights for All People concluded, "The fact that Governor Ritter is signing on to Secure Communities is not just unfortunate, it's irresponsible. We call on the incoming Hickenlooper administration to immediately rescind this agreement until ICE is serious about addressing the flaws of the program.”
